

Reflections Post Test 3

Please respond based on your experience in the course so far.

1. After gaining experiences from test #1 and test #2. Test #3 became very predictable and I felt comfortable taking the test.
- a) True                                      b) False

If your answer is false, what measures will you take to better prepare yourself for the upcoming tests?
(Please respond)

- 2. The time and efforts that I am putting in this course are giving me results.
- a) True                                  b) False

If the answer is false, please explain why? (Please respond).

3. I am able to recall precalculus, calculus I and calculus II material with more ease now, compare to the beginning of the summer session.
- a) True                      b) False

If the answer is false, please explain what are you willing to do to recall the prerequisite material?
(Please respond).

4. The resources posted on Moodle for this course are helpful to me.
- a) To a moderate extent helpful                      b) Very helpful                      c) Not helpful

If your answer is a) or b), please list the resources that are most helpful (Please respond).

5. Any comments or suggestions you have for your Instructor? Feel free to express your thoughts.